How's
Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy liver. When the liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undig-ested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues, a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy liver than any agency known on earth.
It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.
As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, torpid liver, constipation, etc., it hardly ever ever fails. It is the most perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

Stories That Bishop Hare Tells.

Bishop Hare, of South Dakota, is fond of telling stories about himself to illustrate the point which he playfully makes that a man who lives long on the plains comes to be a good deal of a barbarian.
Once, so one of the stories runs, he had the misfortune while entering a dining room in this city to step upon the skirt of a lady's dress. Apologizing, he said, 'You know that I have been living with the Indians lately and have grown somewhat awkward.'

The lady, Miss Potter, quickly replied,
'I don't think that, bishop; but I am surprised at one thing, that after living so long with the Indians you shouldn't be better at following up a trail.'

A few evenings later another little affair occurred, the story of which the bishop tells as follows:

'I was talking with a charming woman when up came a gentleman who claimed her attention for a moment in another part of the house. As she went away she gave me her ice and asked me to keep it for her. She had hardly gone before a brother clergyman engaged me in a talk on the Indian question.'

'Now, if there is any subject in which I am more interested than I am in the Indian question I can't think of it just now. At any rate, I became absorbed in my talk with my friend. Suddenly I was aroused by an inquiry addressed to me in a woman's voice.

'Where is my ice, bishop?' was the question.

'Upon my word, I had eaten every bit of it.'—New York Times.

Great Men from an Accident.

The history of a certain American family furnishes several examples of a beneficent result of disabling accidents.

The young son of a farmer in a small town in Massachusetts had his hand crushed in his father's cider mill, and being thus unfitted to gain his livelihood by farming was sent in due time to the academy to commence a preparation for a professional life. He died a member of the United States senate.

A boy who belonged to another branch of the same family, in the vicinity of Boston, cut his knee badly and was long confined to the house. His kind pastor supplied him with books, and perceiving that he had a natural aptitude for study taught him Latin and finally induced his parents to send him to college.

The young man was graduated at Harvard and became a minister of the gospel. One of his sons was a general in the army of 1832; another served his country in congress.

The son who entered college had six sons who were college educated men, all prominent in their profession—one a judge of the superior court of New Hampshire and another a professor for forty years in a New England college and eminent as an author.

All this life of education and usefulness, extending through three generations, may be said to have started in a little boy's cutting his leg—Youth's Companion.

One Child's Dream.

Harriet Martineau relates that, of her many childish fancies, perhaps none was so terrible as a dream she had at four years old. 'I dreamed,' she says, 'that we children were taking a walk with our nursemaid. Out of the public house there came a stag with prodigious antlers. Passing the pump, it crossed the road to us and made a polite bow, with its head on one side, and with a scrape of one foot; after which it pointed with its foot to the public house, and spoke to me, inviting me in. The maid declined, and turned to go home. Then came the terrible part.

'By the time we were at our own door it was dusk, and we went up the steps in the dark; but in the kitchen it was bright sunshine. My mother was standing at the dresser, breaking sugar, and she lifted me up and set me in the sun, and gave me a bit of sugar. Such was the dream which froze me with horror.
Who shall say why?' concludes the narrator, looking back from her strong minded maturity to that vividly remembered childish dream, and utterly unable to understand 'what the fright was about.'—Argosy.

Discouraging the Use of Tobacco.

Professor Smith, formerly of Bowdoin college, did not like to have the students chew tobacco during recitations and took effectual means to break up the practice. A boy who was called upon to recite one day, not expecting to be 'pulled,' as the saying goes, on the next day in succession, would go into the class and chew tobacco during the hour.
Whenever 'Cosine' noted this he was morally certain to ask that student in five minutes or so would manage to put him in a position where he would either have to swallow a copious amount of tobacco or else choke. Such vigorous treatment had a beneficial effect.—Low-iston Journal.

A Neat Way of Putting It.
A neat compliment was uttered once by General Romaine. Meeting Lady de Briente, whom he had known and admired in the loveliness of her youth, he commenced complimenting her. 'You forget that I am an old woman,' she said at length. 'Madame,' returned the gallant soldier, 'when our eyes are dazzled by a diamond it never occurs to us to ask a mineralogist for its history.'—London Standard.

How to Calvary.

The hill near Jerusalem, where the crucifixion of Jesus occurred, is formed of limestone. The shores of the Dead sea are lined with pumice stone, showing out of some volcano that destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, which cities finally sank beneath the waters of the Dead sea.—Meehans Monthly.

Naught Never Comes to Grief.

Hobson—I'm tired of life, ye see, and yet if I blow out my brains, don't you know?—the world would condemn me as a suicide.

Dobson—No, I believe the general verdict would be justifiable homicide.— New York Epoch.

The Two Hands.

It is remarkable that with the majority of people the neglected left hand is not in mere strength inferior to the right. We have heard truly right handed people actually declare that their left hand is the stronger, and from the writer's own experience he knows this to be the case. This may be from the mechanical advantage and better balance of the body, the right side being heavier, or it may be due to the large muscles of the unused arm being less hampered by the development of other muscles. It is difficult in these cases to say which is the 'right' hand, for the fact that the unused arm is the stronger does not imply ambidexterity, nor can we justly give the precedence to strength over dexterity.

Moreover, we cannot call the hand that excels in one series of dexterous motions the superior hand if it can be shown that the other is chosen to perform an act which, apparently trifling, may require some knack or nicety of touch. It is the hand put forth in emergency, when taken by surprise, that makes a spontaneous gesture, the hand that acts first, which is the 'right' hand.—London Spectator.

Brotherly Foresight.

Little Tom was involved in the difficulties of learning to dress himself, and regarded the buttons which had to be fastened behind his back as so many devices to torment small boys.

One morning he was informed of the arrival of a baby sister, and later in the day was allowed to steal into his mother's chamber to look at the baby as she lay asleep.

Tom regarded the small creature with much interest, and the nurse, wishing to know what his thoughts were, asked him softly:

'Well, how do you like her? Isn't she a darling?'

'I don't think she looks much good,' answered Tom, with uncompromising frankness. 'How soon will she be big enough to fasten my back buttons?'

Seat Attachment for Bicycles.

An arrangement has been devised by means of which children can derive from bicycling the benefits of rapid motion in the open air. This consists of an extra attachment, to hold a child in front of the rider in such a manner that it can not fall out and will not throw the machine out of balance, while it may also be adjusted to suit children of different sizes. When the child is not riding the seat may be easily removed and the bicycle used in the ordinary way.—New York Telegram.

No Animals in the Dry Parts of Caves.

No animals whatever are found in the dry parts of caves. Dampness, or a certain degree of moisture, seems to be essential to their existence. Under the stones one finds white, eyeless worms, and in the damp soil around about are to be discovered blind beetles in little holes which they excavate and bugs of the thousand-leg sort. These thousand-leg bugs, which in the upper world devour fragments of dead leaves and other vegetable debris, sustain life in the caverns by feeding upon decayed wood, fungus growths and bats dung. Kneeling in a beaten path one can see numbers of them gathered about hardened drips of tallow from tourists' candles. There are plenty of crickets also.—Washington Star.

Queer Religious Sects in Russia.

M. Tsakni, a Russian writer, has published an interesting work upon the curious religious sects of Russia, from which it appears that there are not less than 15,000,000 followers of insane and cranky notions in that empire. These communities of devout and deluded Christians are constantly springing up in spite of all the efforts of Russian despots to keep them down.—St. Louis Republic.

College Girls After a Great Game.

The Smith college girls were differ-ently affected by Yale's victory over Harvard at the annual football game. Some draped their rooms in black and went to the church the next day dressed in deep mourning, and one fasted all day Sunday. Those who bet on Yale gave a banquet, where the dishes were blue, all the table decorations blue and the wall paper one of solid blue, bought and put up purposely for the occasion.—Boston Herald.

A Custom Very Like American.

According to Colonel Rockill, the devils are driven out of the towns in Corea on New Year's eve by firing off guns and crackers. This is a curious parallel, if not an explanation, of the custom of our own New Year's shooters.

Why the Sky Is Flat.

The apparent flattening of the vault of the heavens has been found to have an annual period, and to depend on clouds. It seems least flat with a misty horizon, and less by night than by day.

Look Out, Boys!

The girls are crowding the colleges this year. Not only are the women's colleges full, but the institutions which allow coeducation in any degree are feeling the pressure. The corporation of Brown university recently decided to admit girls, and seven have already passed examination for the freshmen class, which will number over 120 members. Young men, the girls will beat you 'if you don't watch out.'—Spring-

SHERIFF'S SALE.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, Thomas Orr, plaintiff, vs. Shelton C. Fogus, as Administrator of the estate of W. C. Fogus, deceased; Catherine A. Fogus, who on C. Fogus, Charles A.
Fogus, D. A. Bender, First National Bank of Reno, Nevada, corporation, James Winfrey, James Sullivan and P. J. Kelley, defendants.

Under and by virtue of an order of sale and decrees of foreclosure and sale issued out of the District Court of the State of Nevada, for Washoe County, on the 26th day of January, A. D. 1892, in the above entitled cause, between the parties and above named plaintiff, obtained a judgment and decree of foreclosure and sale against Shelton C.
Fogus, as Administrator of the estate of W. C. Fogus, deceased; Catherine A. Fogus, Shelton C. Fogus, Charles A. Fogus, First National Bank of Reno, Nevada, corporation; D. A. Bender, James Winfrey, James Sullivan and P. J. Kelley, defendants, on the 12th day of January, A. D. 1892, for the sum of $116.05, in United States gold coin, besides costs of $22.05 and $209.20 Counsel fees, with interest at the rate of one per cent per month from the date of said decree, besides cost and accruing costs. I am commanded to sell subject to the rights of way, pieces or parcels of land situated, lying and being in Washoe County, State of Nevada, bounded and described as follows, to-wit: Commencing at the north west corner of said land, and extending to the south line of the street, in the said town of Reno, known by the name of Commercial Row, one hundred and forty feet east from the south side of Commercial Row and East street, in said town of Reno, thence extending easterly with the south line of Commercial Row, two hundred feet, thence due south, allowing a variation east the same as the United States Survey embracing said land to the edge of low water in the Truckee River, thence westerly along the line of low water's edge on the North bank of the Truckee River to the line of the survey of the town of Reno, as laid out in the Spring of 1868 for Charles Crocker; thence north on said line to the place of beginning, making a flat of land fronting on the south side of Commercial Row an extended easterly 200 feet in width, extending southerly the same width to the water's edge on the north bank of the Truckee River, and a section of land lying east of the above described tract of land, beginning at the northeast corner thereof, and extending easterly on a line with the north line of the above described land eighty-two feet, thence southerly, at right angles to the water's edge of the north bank of the Truckee River, thence westerly along the water's edge of said river to the above described lands, thence northerly along the water's edge of said river to the place of beginning. Also all of that certain mill race, dam and water privilege and dam commencing at a point on the north bank of Truckee River below the public iron bridge across said river, in said town of Reno, and extending down on north side of said river to the mill on the above described land, now being completed. Also all of the machinery in said mill and all that may be hereafter added thereto or put therein for the purpose of milling flour, grinding barley, salt water, or other tools and implements used or to be used in or about said mill, and as set forth and described in the second mortgage is as follows, to-wit: All that certain piece of property situated in the town of Reno, County of Washoe, State of Nevada, bounded and described as follows: Commencing at a point on the line dividing Sections 11 and 12, T. 19 N., R. 19 E., M. D. 2 S. & M., where said line is intersected by the south line of Commercial Row, and extending easterly to the place of Truckee river; thence westerly along the north bank of the said Truckee River to said section line and thence north and along said section line to the place of beginning, being the same land heretofore conveyed to S. C. Fogus by the Mary P. Land and Mining Company and by Frank Lapointe. Also the mill on said land and all the machinery, mill race, dam, water rights and accessories and appurtenances, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging, or in any wise appertaining, and all right and claim of homestead. Both mortgages being a part of the same property, and the first and second mortgages thereon.

Public notice is hereby given that on TUESDAY, the 26th day of February, A. D. 1892, at 1 o'clock p. m. of said day, in front of the Court House, in said town of Reno, Nevada, I will in obedience to order of sale, sell the above described property or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said debt, interest, costs and charges, and the costs, etc., to the highest and best bidder for gold coin of the United States.

Dated this 2d day of February, A. D. 1892.

W. H. CAUGHLIN,

Sheriff of Washoe County.

DISTRICT COURT SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF Nevada, in and for Washoe County. The State of Nevada, vs. M. P. Murry greeting.
You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Mary P.
Murry as plaintiff in the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Washoe, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons, exclusive of day of service, if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but not to plead, defend, or in any other case forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint.
The action is brought to recover a decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between you, M. P. Murry, defendant, and Mary P. Murry, plaintiff, and for a decree awarding the care, custody and control of said child, the issue of said marriage, to plaintiff upon the grounds:

First—That you on or about the day of April, A. D. 1890, wilfully and without cause, deserted and abandoned plaintiff, and ever since said time have lived separate and apart from her without any cause or reason, and against her consent, and Second—That for more than one year immediately prior to the commencement of this action you have failed, refused and neglected to provide for plaintiff the common necessities of life, and which said neglect, failure and refusal was not occasioned by ill health, poverty or ordinary industry which you could not avoid by ordinary industry, you having the ability to furnish said common necessities of life for plaintiff.

All of which will more fully appear from the complaint, which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said County, and to which you are especially referred. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court at Reno, this 22nd day of January, A. D. 1892.

O. H. FRIMBY,

Clerk of the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for Washoe County.

LET THE PEOPLE GOVERN.

The Gazette thinks it has the most glib readers in the world when it expects them to believe that the Republican party favors the free coinage of silver. Harrison has proclaimed against it; every State convention of the party held last year, with the single exception of Colorado, declared against it, and McKinley, who wrote letters and made speeches in favor of it, swallowed his own words in consideration of the support of the Administration and Wall Street campaign funds, and came out squarely against it. No Senator, whether it be Jones, Stewart, Teller, or Wolcott, can be an Administration Republican and favor free coinage, and everybody with the brains of a titmouse, knows it. Senator Stewart when in Reno, publicly declared that as a free coinage man he could not support Harrison, and Senators Jones, Teller and Wolcott out loose from the Administration long ago. No candid, intelligent person believes that the Republican party is in favor of free coinage, and what many sincere friends of silver now fear is that Wall Street may control enough Democrats in Congress to prevent the passage of a silver bill.

If the people of Nevada are true to themselves this year, and everything indicates that they are, duplicity will not succeed. Silver is an issue, and it concerns this State much more than the tariff, and if neither of the old parties declare for silver, an independent free coinage State ticket should be elected.

Let the people make the politicians take a back seat this year, and run the election themselves. The expenditures of the State government in 1891, were about $30,000 in excess of the revenue, a fact which the Controller's report shows, and the Gazette conceals. This condition of affairs will not be improved this year unless the price of silver advances and our deserted mining camps and the small farms which depended on them for a market are repopulated.

The people of Nevada have been doped too long by politicians and they should now run the elections themselves. Let us have no more Legislatures that at command of the bosses will ignore the will of the majority, and no more electors or Representatives, who, while pretending to be silver men, vote for gold bugs.

THE STATE PRISON.

A few days ago the JOURNAL noted that the Michigan State Prison—there are three of them—earned $32,000 more than expenses last year, and asked, "Why cannot Nevada do something to make its State Prison self-sustaining?"

Some of the Carson papers flippantly referred to the JOURNAL's question as though it was nobody's business outside of Carson how the State Prison is conducted. The idea seems to prevail at the Capital that the prison must be kept where it is regardless of consequences or expenses.

If the Carson papers will notice the report of the State Controller for the year 1891, they will discover that the expenses of the State last year exceeded the receipts about $30,000. With such a showing it behooves the people of the State to make the State Prison self-sustaining, if such a thing is possible. That it cannot be made so where it is, is evident to everybody outside of the city limits of Carson. The prison shoe shop has been run at a loss to the State, and there is no demand for the stone quarried at the prison grounds, and even the mammoth tracks unearthed there cannot be made a source of revenue. Another idea should therefore be sought for the prison, where the labor of the inmates can be made available, or, where it can be maintained at less cost than where it is now.

The State Insane Asylum is maintained at much less cost than the prison, because it is situated where the labor of those of the inmates, who are mentally and physically able to work, can be utilized, the difference per capita per day being about 40 cents in favor of the Asylum. Why not, then, remove the prison if the expense of keeping able bodied prisoners can be reduced from $1.10 to 64 cents per capita per day by doing so? There is no sentiment, and there should be no partiality, in this matter. If the prison can be maintained cheaper on the Truckee, on the Humboldt, at Stillwater, or anywhere else, than where it is now situated, it should be removed there regardless of its effect on the aspirations of politicians.

Charles A. Dana of the New York Sun, who was Assistant Secretary of War under Lincoln, is an ardent supporter of Senator Hill for the Presidency. His paper, the Sun, one of the ablest edited journals in the United States, has been an advocate of free coinage for years, going so far at one time as to favor the adoption of a silver basis for our monetary system. Mr. Dana favors a Democratic State Convention at an early day, to convince the country at large that Cleveland cannot get the delegates from his own State.

Dr. Leon Damon has made an important communication to the Paris Academy of Medicine, on the introduction of various medicines into the system by means of electricity. He has demonstrated, by numerous experiments upon himself, that the new method is practicable, and, if borne out by experience, it will revolutionize the healing art.

The Senate yesterday confirmed the appointment of James H. Beatty, District Judge of Idaho. Senators Shoup and McConnell objected to the appointment of Judge Beatty on the ground that he would not be acceptable to the people of Idaho.

The estate of the late Cardinal Manning is worth less than $500. He gave everything to the poor.

In Chicago last year there were 1,938 deaths by violence; there were 325 killed by railroads and 270 suicides.

WASHINGTON, February 4.—Talking this afternoon to an Associated Press reporter, ex-Speaker Reed said the withdrawal by the Louisiana Lottery of its demand for a new charter is one triumph for the Fifty-First Congress. Now that the Supreme Court has sustained the constitutionality of the Anti-Lottery Postal Act, even the Lottery Company recognizes the futility of future existence. The Acts of the Fifty-First Congress shall stand well the test of time.

With regard to the rules just adopted, Reed said that the principle of responsible government in the House had been more ruthlessly recognized in that part of the new regulations relating to the power of the Committee on Rules than was ever dreamed of in the Fifty-First Congress.

The power to enforce the will of the House was lodged, in important measures, to that committee, so that party legislation could have full swing, while a bill of an individual member, even if approved by the House, was left to the mercy of filibusters. The right of a present quorum has been denied, and the force of a member present for the purpose of assent, has been revived. All this, however, time and the Supreme Court will take care of.

Meanwhile it will be a source of regret to the country that more liberal measures for the promotion of innocent, useful, non-partisan and necessary legislation have not been adopted. The debate has shown that the good example of the last two years has been entirely lost. What used to be called "good sense," has been established in the great and unexampled power conferred on the Committee on Rules. The folly of wasting the time of the House in the reference of bills, has been forever done away with, thanks to the example set by the last Congress. The country knows the House can do all it wants to do.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, February 4.—Reed of Maine offered a substitute for Rule 24 relating to order of business. The only change proposed is that the morning hour, which under the code is limited to sixty minutes, may be extended indefinitely at the pleasure of the House. Reed's amendment was rejected by vote of 80 to 104.

Chipman of Michigan offered an amendment, providing for Friday sessions for the consideration of private pension bills. Agreed to.

The consideration of the rules reported by the Committee having been concluded, Reed, on behalf of the Republicans, offered as a substitute the rules of the 51st Congress. Lost without division. Code of rules then agreed to.

Governor Boies for First Place—A Terrible Mistake.

DES MOINES, Ia., February 4.—At a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee to-day, the question of the candidacy of Governor Boies was discussed and it was formally decided to push him for first place on the ticket. A large delegation will be on hand in Chicago to push their candidate.

C. F. Duke, a prominent druggist of this city is dying in horrible agony to-night as the result of an unfortunate accident. To-day his mother had two pots on the kitchen stove, one filled with lye and the other with soup. She being near-sighted accidentally filled her son's soup-plate from the wrong pot and he swallowed a spoonful of it before the mistake was discovered. His sufferings are terrible.

The San Francisco Postoffice Site.

WASHINGTON, February 4.—The Commission having in charge the purchase of a postoffice site in San Francisco to-day decided not to consummate the purchase of the site selected by the San Francisco Commission until the charges of bribery against the local Commissioners have been investigated. A special treasury agent is now at work on the matter. The Commission requests that any person having knowledge of a bribe being received by the local Commission to communicate the same to the general Commission at Washington.

Murderous Assault by a Sicilian.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 4.—Antonio Lulla, a Sicilian, made a savage attack with a razor this afternoon on Mrs. Rosa Campagna, the wife of a fruit dealer who had Lulla's brother arrested for assault. Lulla threw the woman to the ground and inflicted a deep gash, encoiling her throat with the razor, narrowly missing the jugular vein, then slashed the woman on the left side of the skull, cutting away a large piece of flesh. The woman seized the razor and had her fingers nearly severed. Lulla has been arrested.

Steps Taken for the Relief of Russia.

NEW YORK, February 4.—At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to-day, Governor Hoyt of Wyoming said: "The West is ready to donate thousands of bushels of grain to the suffering Russians, and is only waiting the action of the New York people to assist in carrying it to them." A resolution was thereupon adopted appointing a committee to solicit contributions to the relief fund, which will be used in taking relief to Russia and in distributing it, probably through the Red Cross Society.

Annual Banquet.

BALTIMORE, February 4.—The annual banquet of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association to-night surpassed all previous efforts of this organization. Among the prominent guests were Postmaster General Wanamaker, Senator Vance, Representative Buttle, Representative Durborow, Captain Shiley of the cruiser Baltimore. Congressman Durborow made a short address on the World's Fair.

The Great Preacher Laid to Rest.
The funeral of the Rev. Charles Haddon Spurgeon, the great preacher, took place yesterday. The services were held at the Scotch Church at Montone, and telegrams of condolence from the American Evangelist, D. L. Moody, and the Prince of Wales were read.

The deceased was born in June, 1834, and when 16 years old he became a teacher at Newmarket, and two years later was Pastor of a Baptist Congregation at Waterbeach. A year later he was called to London and at Newington Butts a chapel was erected for his congregation which was capable of accommodating 6,000 people. His converts are numbered at 20,000, and twenty volumes of his sermons have been published.

A BRUTAL CRIME.

Henry Hoffman Charged With Having Beaten a Squaw so That She Will Probably Die.

For more than a year Henry Hoffman, who has figured considerably in the Justice Court proceedings here, has been living with a squaw in an Indian camp outside the town. Sunday evening he was observed going home with her along the railroad track. At a point a little above the lumber yard they were seen to sit down beside the track.

Monday morning the squaw was found in a dazed condition as though just returning to consciousness from a long period of insensibility, brought about by having been brutally beaten about the head and body with a coupling pin. Officer Campbell and Constable Upson, on being informed, went up to see her, and, finding her badly injured, returned to town to make some arrangements about having her placed in the hospital. When they returned she had so far recovered as to have gone to the Indian camp, where the Indians were taking care of her.

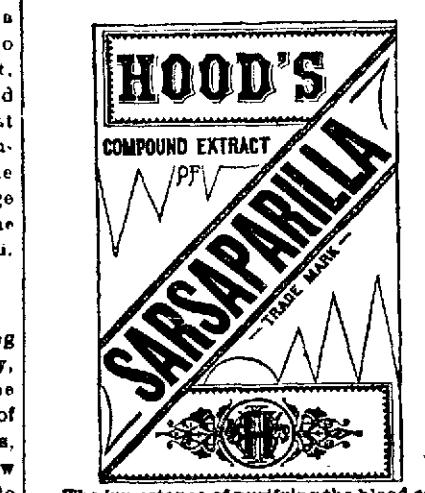

Wednesday night, Hoffman's connection with the case having been learned, Sheriff Caughlin and Officer Coats went up to the camp and placed him under arrest. He was brought to town and lodged in the jail. Yesterday afternoon the squaw was sinking rapidly, and it is thought, cannot live.

THE BEE BUSINESS.

A Paying Business That Is In No Danger of Being Overdone.

Charles Davenport, a young man from Sacramento, and a nephew of Mrs. M. J. Howard, is starting an extensive apiary upon her ranch in Steamboat Valley. He has about one hundred hives now, and will increase the number as fast as they can be obtained. The bee business is one of the most lucrative that one may engage in here, for the reason that in quantities there is a market for all the honey that can be produced, as it is shipped directly east. For several years the large local producers of honey have realized 15 cents per pound at the depot for all their honey, and the Eastern buyers were clamorous for more. Last year a Reno lady sold 7,000 pounds of honey as the proceeds of forty hives, for which she received 15 cents per pound, or $1,050. As she did all the work herself and was occupied but about three hours a day only for three months of the year, the returns were considerable.

The latest enumeration of Government office holders shows a total of 150,000 as against 100,000 ten years ago. How many thousands would be more independent politically, and would kick over the party traces, were it not for the hope of being one of the 150,000 office holders?

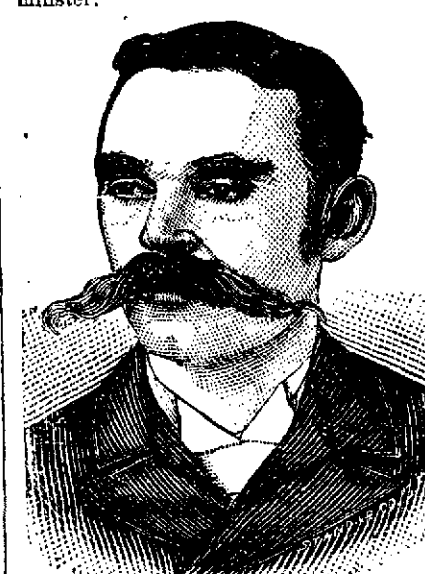

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health. At this season every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and we ask you to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sarsaparilla.
